

Patti Lee and her husband, Marty Arrive to Visit BLT Schools!

20140214 - Patti Lee and her husband, Marty Arrive!

Patti Lee and her husband, Marty (who travelled from Canada), visited the BLT Schools that are supported by her and Barbara Seagram.

Patti, Marty and many of their friends from Canada supplied students with toothbrushes, toothpaste, pens and pencils etc.

Patti and the students had fun with the hand puppets she brought with her

20 Students received bicycles from Patti Lee (Donated by Patti through the Toronto Bridge Club)

Also 20 bicycles for needy students and workbooks for all the schools (from the proceeds of the Charity Draw held in Jan.) were also distributed by Patti and Marty on their visit.

Patti had fun in the classrooms with the hand puppets she brought with her.

While there, Patti and volunteer Neroli enjoyed a night out in Phnom Penh!

Patti supplied students at all BLT schools with toothbrushes and toothpaste

Demonstrating dental hygiene

Buying clothes at the BLT Sewing Shop

Neroli Suriyajaya watches as Patti explains the significance of her rings
(Doesn't matter where you go, diamonds are a girls best friend)

Puppet show preparation
(Lisa can be seen in the background)

Patti's husband, Marty Miller, enjoying the puppet show

Students enjoy Patti Lee's visit in the library at Happy Gecko